

Becoming the Story We Tell

What does it mean to embody the passion of Jesus?

Why? Because we long to be drawn into God's love in Christ. We long to draw others with us.

What? A day-long workshop with worship, experience and reflection, teaching (scripture, background, context) and one-on-one spiritual conversations. Facilitated by the Rev. Canon John W.B. Hill, diocese of Toronto and the Rev. Gregor Sneddon, diocese of Ottawa

Enter the drama of the gospel and make the connection between your baptism and the story of Christ's redemptive love.

For Whom? Parish clergy, deacons, EFM participants, lay readers, baptized Christians interested in liturgy and learning

When? Saturday, November 19, 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

Where? Cross Common Room, St. John's College, 92 Dysart Rd, Winnipeg
Cost: $25 for lunch. To register: 204.474.8531 or amy.craddock@umanitoba.ca

Co-sponsored by St. John's College and the Centre for Christian Studies
