

Diakonia During Climate Change Questions for Discussion and Reflection

- 1) What are some of the ways climate change will or already is impacting the people you work with in diakonia?
- 2) What vulnerabilities does climate change expose for people within your diaconal context?
- 3) How might climate change be an opportunity for your diaconal ministry?
- 4) What is challenging or discouraging as you try to respond to climate change in your personal life and diakonia? What helps you to handle these?
- 5) Where do you find encouragement/hope as you make changes to your personal life and diakonia in response to climate change? How do you share this good news?
- 6) What's one thing you might change about your diakonia in response to the impacts of climate change?
- 7) How does your congregation, the non-profit(s) you serve, your diaconal association, and the Centre for Christian Studies need to adapt and grow in response to climate change?

Diakonia During Climate Change Questions for Discussion and Reflection

- 1) What are some of the ways climate change will or already is impacting the people you work with in diakonia?
- 2) What vulnerabilities does climate change expose for people within your diaconal context?
- 3) How might climate change be an opportunity for your diaconal ministry?
- 4) What is challenging or discouraging as you try to respond to climate change in your personal life and diakonia? What helps you to handle these?
- 5) Where do you find encouragement/hope as you make changes to your personal life and diakonia in response to climate change? How do you share this good news?
- 6) What's one thing you might change about your diakonia in response to the impacts of climate change?
- 7) How does the Centre for Christian Studies association need to adapt and grow in response to climate change?